CALL FOR PAPERS

The 1st Workshop on Games-Human Interaction (GHItaly 2017) aims at bringing together scholars and industry practitioners to establish a common ground on the topic. Main goal of the event is to spur discussion, exchange of ideas, and development of new ways of researching, teaching, and working on HCI applied to design and production of video games.

The application range of video games has to be intended in its broadest sense: both entertainment and applied finalities.

GHItaly 2017 will be held in conjunction with the 12th Edition of CHIItaly, the biannual Conference of the Italian ACM SIGCHI Chapter, from 18th to 20th of September 2017 in Cagliari.

TOPICS

The workshop aims at collecting contribution advancing the research applied to video games. Suggested topics include (but are not limited to):

Human Computer Interaction
Usability (also for special needs)
Biometric measures for interaction
Game Design & Level Design
Artificial Intelligence applied to Game and Level Design
Visualization techniques
Immersive VR systems
Social interaction in video games and virtual environments
Software architectures
Distributed and Online systems
Sensemaking
Agency of objects
Critical or meaningful play experience
Moral choices
Procedural rhetoric
Storytelling

SUBMISSION

All paper submissions must be in English, and they must not exceed six (6) pages in length, including references. The papers must be formatted using the ACM SIGCHI format. The latest version of the ACM SIGCHI templates can be found at the following URL:

<https://chi2017.acm.org/submission-formats.html>

Papers must be submitted online on EasyChair.

<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=ghitaly17>

All the papers will be subject to a double review process by the members of the Programme Committee. The proceedings with the papers accepted to the GHItaly 2017 workshop will be published in CEUR Workshop Proceedings (<http://ceur-ws.org/>), and will be indexed by SCOPUS.

The authors of the best papers will be invited to submit an extended version of their work to a special issue of Multimedia Tools and Applications published by Springer International Publishing, ISSN: 1380-7501 (print), 1573-7721 (electronic).
